Start Spoils Handicap, Which Is Won by Buttling in Fast Time-A Gallop for Yankee Consul-Five Favorites Beaten at the Brighton Beach Track.

Picking winners at Brighton Beach yesterday, so far as form cut a figure, was merely a delusion and a snare. Five heavily backed favorites were defeated, and the smart operators went home wondering how it all hap-pened. Another crowd of 12,000 persons turned out, enjoying the delightful breezes from the ocean until it was time to go back from the ocean until it was time to go back to the sweltering city.

The wise money was divided in its distribution in the Atlantic Stakes, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, Newton Bennington's Guiding Star being a hot even money favorite, with Frank Farrell's Arklirta widely backed at 7 to 5. At the send off Arklirta quickly dropped back and, after a bungling ride by Walsh dnighed outside of the money. R. Walsh, finished outside of the money. R. T. Wilson, Jr's, Nostromo, a 10 to 1 shot, made most of the pace, but Lyne got P. J. Dwyer's Quorum, 7 to 1, up in time in a flerce drive to win by a head in 1:14 1-5, with Nostrome a length and a half before Guiding Star, who was outrun from the start .

The handicap at a mile and a furlong was a smashing race. It was also an open betting affair, with Garnish the choice at twos. The start killed the chances of several horses, including St. Valentine, Ostrich and Alles d'Or, who were caught in the barrier. Buttling, 6 to 1, on the other hand, was off run-ning, and maint ined his lead to the end, where on by a length and a half in the fast time of 1:51 4-5. It was a clinking drive for the of 1:51 4-5. It was a clinking drive for the place, Tyron, 6 to 1, taking it in the last ump by a nose from Gamara, 6 to 1. Garnish finished fourth, ten lengths back.

Boys that had never ridden a winner had the mountain the first race, for platers, at a mile and a sixteenth. The winner turned up in R. H. McCarter Potter's Jetsam, backed down to 4 to 1, who took the race in a drive by a neck from A. L. Aste's Rubrie, backed down to tens, with James R. Keene's Masaniello, 18 to 5, third, a length and a half back. The time was 1:47 2-5.

Just half the field that started in the steeple-chase handicap managed to stand up. Pagan Bey, an odds-on favorite, was among those that fell. After the accidents were over, Knight of Harlem, 4 to 1, went on about his business and won in a gallop by eightlengths, with Judge Fulton and East Kelston, both 100 to 1 shots, finishing second and third, respectively. The race was run in 4:31.

Yankee Consul, a prohibitive favorite, simply ran away from his company in the third race, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, winning with plenty to spare in 1:07. Cassini, 12 to 1, ran over La Sorciere, 18 to 5, in the place.

MIMOSA III. WINS. Challenger Takes First Race for Man-

hasset Cup. In a good breeze from the couthwest the first race of a series of three for the possession of the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club's Challenge Cup was sailed yesterday on Long Island Sound over the regular course of the American Yacht Club, whose yacht, the Mimosa III., owned by its commodore, Trenor L. Park, was the challenger. J. W. Alker's sloop Alert was the defender, and the other entry was Victor I. Cumnock's Nike. The Mimosa III. was the winner by 8 minutes 59 seconds from the Alert, the latter being 12 seconds ahead of the Nike. The course was four miles to windward and back, sailed twice over, making sixteen miles in all. The start and finish line was of Parsonage Point near Larchmont, and the turning mark in Hempstead Bay of Mott's Point.

turning mark in Hempstead Bay off Mott's Point.

Each yacht was handled by her owner, and the three made a pretty start, all crossing the line closehalied on the port tack, and carrying three lower sails. The Mimosa III. led from the start, and at the conclusion of the first leg of windward work she was leading the Nike by 2 minutes 55 seconds. With spinnakers and balloon jibs set, the trio of racing craft made a good time across the Sound to the home mark, the Mimosa III. covering the four miles in 26 minutes 15 seconds. She gained 20 seconds on this run. The times taken as they luffed around the home mark were: Mimosa III., 234:560; Nike, 2:37:45; Alort, 2:38:40.

It was on the second leg of windward work that the Mimosa III. made substantial gain. At the weather mark she was the leader by 5 minutes 44 seconds.

New York A. C. Athlete Wins Scottish

Long Jump Championship. Harry P. McDonald of the New York A. C. carried the club's colors to victory in the amateur championship of Scotland, held a little more than a week ago at Ibrox Park, Glasgow. He secured the title in the broad Glasgow. He secured the title in the broad jump with 21 feet 3¼ inches, beating his nearest opponent by more than six inches. Although he represented the New York A. C., McDonald was eligible to compete, as he was born in Scotland.

Several other creditable performances were accomplished at the meeting. W. D. Anderson, Bellahouslin Harriers, won the half mile in 1 minute 58 4-5 seconds, which is a new Scottlish record. R. S. Stronach won the 120 yard hurdle in 16 seconds flat, which equals the Scotch record. The mile was won by J. M. Gough, Bellahouslin Harriers, in 4 minutes 24 1-5 seconds. Halswell of the Highland Light Infantry won the quarter mile in 51 seconds, which is the best ever recorded at a Scotch championship. T. R. Nicholson won the hammer throw with 153 feet 3 inches.

NO MATCH RACE ARRANGED.

BUT SYSONBY AND ARTFUL MAY MEET NEXT MONDAY.

Harry P. Whitney Favors a Contest at a Mile, but It Is Up to Trainer Rogers to Decide—Thousands Lost on Pagan Bey, Who Falls in the Steeplechase.

As far as a match race at a mile and a fur-long between Sysonby and Artful next Thurs-day is concerned it may be said that such an event is out of the question, but there is still a chance of a meeting between the star three-year-olds at Brighton Beach next Monday, year-olds at Brighton C. J. Fitzgerald, the gen-eral manager of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, said yesterday that Harry Payne Whitney had expressed to him a willingness to start Artful next Monday in a mile race, providing Trainer Rogers should give his consent. Artful left with the other Whitney horses for Starton particular in the horses for Saratoga yesterday in the care of Rogers, so that it is up to him to say whether Artful can come back here for a race with Sysonsby next week. Mr. Fitzgerald wired Rogers last night for a definite statement as to his intentions.

James R. Keene has not as yet made a positive declaration in favor of or against the race. He apparently is waiting to find out what Mr. Whitney's plans are. Mr. Keene asked Trainer Rowe yesterday when Sysonby could be gotten ready for a match with Artful, and Rowe replied that the Melton colt could be put on edge in about a week, or, more definitely, by next Monday sure. Both Mesers. Keene and Whitney are willing to yield to a popular demand for a match, but they must first place the matter before their trainers. But as time passes turfmen are inclined to believe that obstacles will arise which will preclude all chance for a test under any cir-cumstances. The Brighton management neanwhile stands ready to hang up a $10,000 purse for a sweepstakes whenever the owners of Sysonby and Artful express a willingness to accept.

Once again the folly of betting big money on steeplechases was well illustrated in the second event. Pagan Bey, who was made an odds on favorite, was sent to the post lame and soon fell. Sir Voorhees, another heavily backed starter, broke down hopelessly and his rider dismounted, as the animal was suffering intense pain. Alamansor, another unsound horse, pulled up in such a condition that it is improbable that he will race again for some time to come. Thousands were lost on Pagan Bey, incidentally. wheelock dropped $3,000, Yeager, Blumenthal and Joe Hayman $2,500 each, Joe Rose and Morris Hayman $2,000 each, with Ed Stutte, the Lichtensteins, M. Marks, Kid Rogers, J.J. McCafferty and the clubhouse following suit. Morris Stack and Julius Frank had good bets on Knight of Harlem. Ike Thompson and Leo Mayer took Sir Voorhees, while John Coleman showed a preference for Gatebell. Very few of the big betters cashed on Jet-sam in the first race. Elwood was supported very few of the big optiers cashed on setsam in the first race. Elwood was supported by Kid Rogers, Joe Hayman, Counselor

Lichtenstein, Eole Pearsall and George Cafferata. Masaniello was played by Louis Snell, Tim Payne, Bob McGiven, Bill Jackman, Jack McGinnis and Henry Harris.
Whorler was backed by Eddle McDonald, Wheelock, Charley Heney, Dave Johnson and Ed Stutte. Joe Rose played Rubric across the boards, with Tony Aste splitting $500. H. Dargin went to Lady Jocelyn.
For some reason the smart players have always held to the opinion that Yankee Consul is an overrated colt. Although he won his last race in a gallop, these operators believed that C. E. Rowe's La Sorciere could beat him in the third race, with the result that he carried the wagers of Joe Murphy, Joe Guthorn, Morris Stack, John Coleman, Joe Trunkett and W. Holloway. Frank Tyler, the Humming Bird, bet $2,000 on him a place, and so did Julius Frank, with Sol Lichtenstein playing him to show with $2,500. Counselor Lichtenstein, P. Morgan and Joe Hayman had heavy wagers on Yankee Consul, with Bob Rose and Charley Cash playing Cassini
a place.
Frank Farrell, Joe Cassidy, the Sulliy ans split $1,000 on Nostromo, with only small bets on Quorum, the winner, who went up from 3 to 1 to sevens.

Garnish, in the handicap, lost some solid wagers for Charles Head Smith, Joe Rose, Johnny Walters, the Lichtensteins, Julius Frank and John Coleman. Jack McGinnls split $1,500 on Buttling, cleaning up a nice bet. Costigan also played Buttling, as did some of the clubhouse patrons. St. Valentine was supported by Aleck Shields, who dropped $1,500, and by M. Marks, Joe Murphy, John Steiner, who played him to show, and Billy Du Bois. Fred Calhoun split a bet on Marmee, with George Curtis taking Tyron.

My Buela was used as a means of getting out on the day in the last race, but there was no such luck, as she was beaten a nose. Tommy Burns lodged a protest of foul against Idle Dream, but the stewards would not allow it. Nearly every plunger of note took My Buela with the exception of Leo Mayer, who jumped off his stool and went up and down the line betting as much money on Idle Dream as the books would accept. It was said that he cleaned up close to $15,000 on the result. Joe Yeager had a small bet on Duchess Oille to show, with Grant Lyman placing a big wager on Grand Duchesse and Otto Townsend splitting $500 on Nopal.

Frevious winners of the Atlantic Stakes were Trumpet, Prince Pepper, Sombrero, Elater, Nameoki and Carrie Jonas.

St. Valentine was not only hindered at the start in the handicap, but also ran without blinkers.

In the third race W. M. Sheftel started a colt named Blair Athol, by Ben Strome—Roseleaf, who is a full brother to Roseben.
Hermis has been galloping sceadily for the last few days and is said to be nearly fit. If he goes well to-day he will probably start in some of the big races at Saratoga.
Hohman rode a clever race on Jetsam in the first event, showing that he could put it over the other green apprentices with ease.
Buttling ran nine furlongs in the fifth race in 151 4-5, which is four-fifths of a second slower than the world's record for the distance. He carried top weight according to the scale, giving eleven pounds to Gamara and fifteen to Tyron. It was the best performance of his career, and Owner McGinnis was well pleased with it.

Robert Davies, a Canadian millionaire, was represented in the handicap by Ailes d'Or, a fre-year-old horse by Melton—Golden Wings, who arrived here from Buffalo on Friday. There was a quiet tip in circulation, and the horse was played chiefly to show. But he was caught in the barrier at the start and after making up the lost ground Hildebrand eased him up, as it was a useless task in view of the terrific pace set by the leaders.

QUAKER STROKE OAR HURT. Atkin of Pennsylvania Varsity Eight Suffering From Injuries to Hands. Hercules B. Atkin, who stroked the University of Pennsylvania eight-oared boat in the intercollegiate races on the Hudson last the intercollegiate races on the Hudson last month, has developed a painful injury as the result. Almost all the Quaker carsmen had difficulty with their hands at the time of the race, and all were afflicted with sore hands. Atkin has not been able to get rid of the blisters on his hands.

Although the race took place nearly two weeks ago, his hands and arms to the elbow have been in a swollen condition for the past five days. The pain has been so great that he has been unable to sleep more than a few hours a night. It is apprehended that the affair may be serious.

Public Links. A new record of 69, earned by Aleck Smith, was the feature of the play at the Van Cort-landt Park links yesterday, where there was a muster of professionals to get a line on the course in advance of the open competition to be held on Thursday and Friday. Seventytwo holes of medal play are to be negotiated, the start to be made on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. The tournament committee, W. H. Beers, Charles Kirchner, John C. O'Con-nell, W. R. Moon and D. H. Thomas, met yesterday and announced the prizes would be six in number, of $150, $100, $50, $40, $30 and $20. In addition there will be a special prize of $25 to, the maker of the best thirtysix holes each day.

There were about 400 followers of the notable four ball match yesterday in which the new record was made. Aleck Smith and Stewart Gardner were opposed to Will Anderson, the open champion, and Herbert Strong, a new arrival from Cambridge, Englishment Strong, a new arrival from Cambridge, land, where he was employed by the Gog Magog Golf Club and held the professional mark for the eighteen hole course of 73. Strong is not acclimated and was not up to his game by a long shot; and while he haived with Anderson on eleven holes, Strong did not win in a single instance. His total was 80 and Anderson's score of 74 was also the best ball on every green for his team.

Sinth and Gardner won out by 5 up and 4 to play, with a best ball of 67. Gardner won out for the pair on the fifth and fifteenth holes, each time with a 8, and he halved with Smith on ten holes, two of them being in 3s. Gardner's card was 35, 39—74.

A long ball from the tee, followed up by the most brilliant and consistent play with the mashie and putter, made the round seem an easy one to Smith. On the fourth and eleventh holes, respectively of 309 and 311 yards, he ran down puts for 3, and he had a 2 on the 165 yard seventh hole. His record card was:

Out with Anderson on eleven holes, Strong did

According to the M. G. A. official measurement the round is of 5,466 yards, the in holes being 3,124 yards. Charles Thom held the professional record of 73, made three years ago, until this spring, when Bernard Nicholls also made a 73. The course is better bunkered now than when Thom made his score, but as a set-off the turf is now in much better condition. The best ball score for the match was:

There are fifty odd entries in all, which includes a half dozen young homebred professionals. Playing in singles yesterday George Low made 36, 41—78; Tom Anderson, Sr., 37, 44—81, and Horace Rawlins, 39, 43—82.

C. A. Dunning and Jefferson W. Coe, both of St. Paul's School, Garden City, were starters in the Greater Boston Interscholastic Association championship last week at the Country Club, Brookline. Dunning qualified with 88, but lost in the second round to Templeton Briggs by 5 and 3. John B. Hylan of the Lowell textile school and H. H. Wilder of Lowell High School met in the thirty-six hole final, Hylan, 1 down in the morning, winning by 1 up. His medal score was 85, 79—164. Richard Kimball, Brookline High, beat A. Sweeney, Andover, for the consolation cup by 1 up in thirty-seven holes.

The finalists for the first cup at the Great Island Golf Club tournament on Saturday were W J. Travis and A. G. Lockwood, each of whom had made a 69-during the tournament. They were all square at the eighteenth, Travis winning on the twenty-second hole.

Handicaps have been issued by the Western Golf Association, H. J. Tweedie compiling the ratings, the list showing 610 players rated at 18 or under. Those with the lewest ratings mobile Association racing board, was the signer of the petition, and he was at Mineola, L. I., yesterday while his petition was under consideration.

Before giving their formal consent, a petition signed by thirty-five residents of Hempstead, Westbury, Glen Cove and Westbury Station was read which protested against the use of the roads for automobile races. From the quickness with which the objecting petition was disposed of, it seemed as if the Supervisors knew that the far greater majority of their constituents wished to have the contests held in Nassau county. After last year's race many residents who had at first opposed the idea changed their minds on account of the thousands of dollars spent in the locality the day the contest was run. Mr. Morrell assured the Supervisors that there would be no speeding on the course except during the races and that men would be posted along the roads to prevent any racing. He also said he would personally see that the law was not violated, which assertion has some weight, because Mr. Morrell is a practising attorney.

COHN MAY ENTER COLUMBIA. Crack Athletic Club Mile Runner a Probable

Pharmacy Student. It is understood that there is a good chance that Harvey Cohn, the long distance runner and champion miler of the Metropolitan district, may enter Columbia this fall. Cohn, it is said, has had the intention of doing this for some line, and has been preparing himself for the course in the college of pharmacy. The course in that school is not as long as in the regular collegiate department. Cohn will be ineligible for the intercollegiate championships for a year, because of the rule regarding open competitions. He will, therefore, if he takes the contemplated step, represent Columbia for probably not more than two seasons. district, may enter Columbia this fall. Cohn, resent Columbia for probably not more than two seasons.

The addition of Cohn to the Columbia forces would certainly help track athletics at the local university considerably. Cohn is a fast man for almost any distance from 900 yards to two miles. There are many persons who consider that he has a good chance to heat Munson in a mile race. Cohn has done 4 minutes 26 1-5 seconds, the performance with which he won the Metropolitan championship.

Ruhlin Leaves for the West To-day. Gus Ruhlin, accompanied by his manager and trainer, Billy Madden, the latter's wife and son, will start to-day for San Francisco. Ruhlin is matched to meet Jim McCormick of Texas before the Colma A. C., Colma, Cal. on Aug. 11. The mill is practically to a finish. John L. Sullivan is looking out for finish. John L. Sullivan is looking out for McCormick's business and is so confident that his man will win that he has agreed that the winner shall take 75 per cent. and the loser 25 per cent. of the purse. The men are to fight for 50 per cent. of the gross receipts. This is considered a rather liberal offer, even for heavyweights. Madden said yesterday that he has received word from James Caffroth of the club that Marvin Hart will meet the winner on Labor Day, but Madden hardly believes that Hart will keep his word. The veteran manager, by the way, is writing a book about the inside history of the prize ring. Madden has had thirty-five years experience of the game.

CEDARHURST, July 10.—The Rockaway Hunting Club's first four defeated the Great Neck Polo Club's team to-day on the ground of the former organization here. It was the semi-final match of the National Polo Assosemi-final match of the National Polo Asso-ciation tournament for the Rockaway Hunt-ing Club cups. Great Neck had ten goals handleap and Rockaway's clever four, fifteen, so that the home team allowed five goals to the North Siders. The home team won by the score of 13 goals to 8½. The teams lined up as follows: the score of 13 goals to 82. The teams lined up as follows:

The New York Americans made a good tart yesterday on their second crusade to he West. Following up their brace beginning over a week ago, they shut out the Detroits, Chesbro being in invincible form. The victory put the New Yorks in fifth place, rain preventing the Chicago-Boston game and the Bostons falling back to sixth place. The Philadelphias defeated the Lajole-less Clevelands and tied them for second place. The St. Louis-Washington game was post-poned on account of rain. The results:

NEW YORE (A. L.), S; DETROIT, O.

DETROIT, July 10.—Pitcher Chesbro, who has been touted as being "all in" and a "dead one," gave a demonstration to-day that places him in the same class with the leading box men. Of course he received git edge support, but the fact that not a single Detroiter registered in safety at the second sack shows that Chesbro pitched some. Of the two hits that are accredited to Detroit's batsmen but one was clean, Lindsay's, while the one to McIntyre's column was a slash that struck in front of the plate and bounded so high that the ball was still in the air when McIntyre passed the first sack. Conroy in the left garden ate up seemingly hits. His running jumping one hand catch of Crawford's line drive was the feature, the ball beingtagged and shipped for a three bagger.

Catcher Jack Slattery, late of Milwaukee, joined the New Yorks here to-day and practised well. This is how the runs were made: Keller beat a bunt in the fourth inning and took second on Elberfeld's out at first. The score was put up on Williams's spank to left for three sacks. The next came on Conroy's two base hit to left and Keller's smart and clean hit in the 'same direction. The last came in the ninth on Chase's drive just left of second for a base. Yeager's clever sacrifice, Chase's daring steal of third and Fultz's fly to Crawford, which would have been an out at the plate had Doran not played dumb ball. The score:

Chicagos Win in Pittsburg: the Philadelphias Less in Besten Rain flooded the field at Washington Park yesterday just as the New Yorks and Brook-lyns were about to open fire, and the congict was deferred until a day when the elements will permit the use of dry powder. Up in quaint old Boston the downtrodden home team asserted itself and won a gallant victory from the visiting Quakers. The result of that game is that the Bostons and Brooklyns are the mutual possessors of the tail-end and seventh berths. The Chicagos were successful in Pittsburg. The results:

PITTSBURG, July 10.—With one out in the last half of the ninth inning and the score 4 to 1 against Pittsburg, Umpire Bausewine called to-day's game on account of darkness, allowing it to go back to the close of the eighth inning. Chicago played better ball all the way. Case was knocked out in four innings. Hillebrand, who succeeded him, gave but one hit, that in the ninth, and it is not counted, since the game reverted to the eighth inning. The apprecia

Baseball Notes.

At the clip Griffith's men are going just now they will not be out of the first division long.

Beginning to-day the New York Nationals will start a long stretch of games with the Western teams.

Yesterday's returns from Detroit do not indicate that Chesbro's arm is "gone from overuse of the spitball."

Doc Newton has been back with the New York Americans for over a week, but has yet to pitch his first American League game.

The total attendance at both leagues in Philadelphia last week was 85.961. The New York Nationals came in for a share of the spoils. Charles Boni—The man on third should not have been allowed to score on the play. He could have scored only with three on bases, thereby being forced. According to report Doc Hillebrand, Princeton's noted diamond and gridiron expert, is likely to sign with the Pittsburgs shortly. His brother is on the Pittsburg catching staff.

Pittsburg catching staff.

In round numbers the attendance at American League games up to and including last Saturday was 1,457,000 for the season, and 1,881,000 in the National League for the same time.

A Western writer with a thirst dreamed of a team the other night made up as follows: Schilts, c.;

Only four days this season have McGraw's champions been under .700 in percentage. Those four days were in June, when they were West, The percentage figures since the season opened betoken not only strong, but consistent work.

The long distance hitters of the American League and their total bases for long hits are as follows, according to recent figures: H. With Chesbro back in form, Orth pitching well and having the spitball down fine, Powell showing signs of convalescence and Griffith winning most of the few games he pitches, there is hope that the New York Americans twirling corps will now be able to work in regular, turn, and that the use of two or more pitchers to a game will be the exception rather than the rule.

One of the oddition of the season was a play in a ception rather than the rule.

One of the oddities of the season was a play in a Philadelphia-Chicago game. Thomas was on first and started for second on a hit and run play. Gleason fouled off the ball and Thomas took his time about getting back to first. Before he got there Rgulbach whipped the ball over the plate and Gleason bumped it for a single, Thomas going to second without retouching first.

the start and by hooking and labbing accurately had all the better of the opening round. Erne woke up in the second and became very active. After Goodman had landed a hard right on the mouth Erne dug his left into Goodman's kidneys very effectively. Then they exchanged lefts and Erne put a straight one on Goodman's face. They countered well until the bell rang and honors were about

Out of a hundred times that men have been sent in to bat for somebody else in the National League this season, seventeen hits have been made. This would give a batting average for such cases of 170, which is, no doubt, less than a majority of the substituted batamen have of in plinch to list some hits such that the substituted batamen have of in plinch to list some hits of the process of the process of the substituted batamen have of its must be for them, it is probably the case that more men who are not batting better than 170 than men who are not batting that well. According to the fagures, it does not look as if the practise is a paying one, but as all managers do it it must be for the beat.

YOUNG ERNE BESTS GOODMAN.

Crack Boston Fighter Outpeinted in Six Round Go at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA. July 10.—Despite the intense heat, Kid Goodman of Boston and Young Erne of this city put up one of the most interesting six round bouts seen in Philadelphia in many a day. The go was decided at the National A. C. and went the limit. Had there been a decision, Erne would undoubtedly have had the call. He was manifestly superior to Goodman in every respect, his straight jabs and fast footwork excelling that of his rival.

Goodman had the worst of the weight by at least ten pounds. Considering this fact, his showing was splendid. He kept Erne busy throughout. Erne did not have as much power behind his blows as did Goodman, but he was faster and eleverer. Had he been much of a puncher, there is no question that he would have put Goodman away early in the combat.

Goodman was very much in evidence at the start and by hooking and jabbing accut.

Goodman was very much in evidence at the start and by hooking and jabbing accut. game entirely. Kelly is of the opinion ! eventually France will develop a he hold their own in the fastest compan combine the English and Americ of fighting. The majority are quie punchers and clever.

"When Kid Lavigne went to Paris his home there he had no trouble in all the pupils he could handle. It has a large school and is doing of Lavigne has the advantage of bein speak French fluently. He knew guage before he ever saw Paris Reynolds, another American boxer, of to Paris about ten years ago, also cooman's face. They countered well until the bell rang and honors were about even up.

Erne began the third by swinging the left to the face and a spell of hardinfighting ensued. Erne then shot out the left, catching him wince. Erne ducked a difficult right swing and returned with three lefts to the face. Goodman crossed the right on the jaw and did enough fighting to get an even break.

The men warmed up to a considerable extent in the fourth and hustled each other all over the ring. Erne got to his intan without much trouble with his eff. stabbing him on the mouth and nose. Erne continued to pile up points, banging his man when and where in the round or are only effective blows in the round cate of the effective blows in the round cate of the continued to the face, but in return received a hard eff to the face, but in return received a hard eff to the face, but in return received a hard eff to the face, but in return received a hard eff to the nose. Goodman part through the face and Goodman part had been to be sixth. Goodman used his lab, getting home two corkers on the mouth. They fought so viciously that the refere had to hustle to keep them from going over the ropes. Erne landed on the body and made the Kid clinch. Erne next sent two lefts to the face, but in return received a hard eff to the ribs and hooked the left to the face, but in return received a hard eff to the ribs and hooked the left to the face, but in return received a hard eff to the ribs and hooked the left to the face, but in return received a hard eff to the ribs and hooked the left to the face, and Goodman planted his right to the stomach. Just as the roundelosed Erne uppercut Goodman with sufficient force to stagger him.

They mixed it up at a lively rate in the sixth. Goodman used his lab, getting home two corkers on the mouth. They fought so viciously that the refere had to hustle to keep them from going over the ropes. Erne landed a hard left on the ear and Goodman retallated with a peach on the chin.

Erne did not seem to mind the bl
